

Greetings Cowtown Vettes members! As mentioned at last Friday's meeting, I have put together a holiday club event for Saturday, December 19th! We did this last year and it was a lot of fun!

We're going to enjoy the holiday season and spirit that evening in downtown Grapevine! We're going to have dinner at Farina's Winery and Cafe (420 S. Main St.), then enjoy the terrific live holiday music and comedy show put on by "Mainstreet Live!" (formerly called the "Grapevine Opry").

I have arranged for a private room (at no charge!) for us starting at 4:45 p.m. at the restaurant. This unique restaurant is Italian themed with good food, a reasonably priced menu, and extensive wine selection. It is also an antique shop that is beautifully decorated for the holidays! I've also arranged for us to order individually from the menu (with separate checks). There is usually ample free parking in the area.

Afterwards, we'll stroll over to the Palace Theater (less than two blocks away) for the very entertaining holiday show, which starts at 7p.m., and lasts about two hours. The show cost is $25 per person. You'll also be able to admire the spectacular downtown Grapevine Christmas lighting and decorations! You may want to arrive early before the dinner to shop and browse the many boutiques on Main Street.

A number of folks "signed up" at the meeting, and I need to get firm rsvp's no later than Monday, 11/23 from those wanting to join in on the fun. The restaurant private room seating is somewhat limited, and I don't want anyone left out. I will go to the theater next week to purchase the tickets for everyone on my charge card, so we can all sit together....these shows usually sell out! Your credit is good with me! You can just make out a check for show tickets to "Ray Kaspar" and bring it to the December club meeting, the club Christmas party, or even the evening of the 19th.

Denice and I are looking forward to a fun, festive, evening with you all! Please join us....the more, the merrier!!

Regards,

Ray Kaspar
