

1 July 2003

Dear Corvette Enthusiasts.

The Capital Corvette Club invites you to the 24th National Corvette Convention in Wellington, New Zealand, 13 – 15 February 2004. We've got an absolutely positively fabulous weekend planned with something for everyone.

Based at the Museum Hotel and New Zealand's showcase museum, Te Papa, the weekend's programme will give you opportunities to:

- ◆ Catch up with your Corvette friends from around the country
 - ◆ Explore the bars, restaurants and clubs of Courtenay Place
 - ◆ Show off your Corvette at Te Papa and Parliament
 - ◆ Cruise around Wellington - and beyond...
 - ◆ Dance the night away at Te Papa on Valentine's Day
 - ◆ Explore Wellington city
- ◆ Indulge in some retail therapy – although you might need to arrive early or stay longer for this option.

The Convention Programme:

Friday 13 February 2004 Registration and mix & mingle over drinks at the Museum Hotel. Then it's your turn to explore the bars and restaurants in Courtenay Place with old and new found friends.

Saturday 14 February 2004 Show & shine and welcome by the Mayor at Te Papa, followed by a run to the wonderful Wairarapa where you can relax in the country and have some fun with the cars. Then it's time to pamper yourself back at the hotel before you get dressed up for a sparkling Valentine's night of dining and dancing at Te Papa.

Sunday 15 February 2004 Photo call at Parliament Buildings, cruise around our fabulous Harbour Capital, then lunch at a favourite Wellington watering hole followed by prizegiving and AGM.

Car Parking

Cars will be parked at the Museum Hotel and in the underground carpark at Te Papa.

Number Attending

To ensure that we can adequately manage your weekend and make it the best we possibly can, we have decided to limit the number of cars at the convention to 80. A waitlist will operate if necessary.

Registration

Your $165 registration fee covers:

- ◆ Registration pack
- ◆ Security for cars
- ◆ Mix & mingle finger food on Friday
- ◆ Saturday lunch
- ◆ All Saturday activities (except clay bird shooting)
- ◆ Three course dinner, some complimentary wine and entertainment at Te Papa
- ◆ Sunday lunch
- ◆ Lots of fun

Please register by 30 November 2003.

Accommodation

We will be based at the Museum Hotel in Wakefield St, one block from Courtenay Place and opposite Te Papa. Rates quoted are for room only. See enclosed brochure or check out their website at www.museumhotel.co.nz

Apparel

Have a look at the enclosed apparel order form. We hope you like what you see – our black shirts certainly went down well in Blenheim. And in case you're wondering how a black logo on a black shirt works – it looks very good.

Cancellations

Cancellations received by 12 January 2004 will be refunded the registration fee and the accommodation deposit less a $50 cancellation fee. Thereafter no registration refunds or accommodation deposits will be given unless we can replace you with someone from the waitlist. All apparel orders will stand and will be sent to you at the earliest opportunity.
